

Sacrificial Rites

Necrophobic

Enforced by priests of lies
The injure time of an evil seed
The altar of damnation
Surrounds the victim for the daemon feed
Gathering for the ritual
Awaiting for the holy blood to flow
Spirits scorning the christian empire
Infesting the victim while blood comes forth
Dawn has come for the invocation
Experincing the sacrificial rites
Pain has gone beyond laceration
The master of gods arise
Another victim dies
Diciples of God fear their destiny
The damnation has come
No escape from the flames of the deceased
Chanting the hymn of death
The wrath of Satan slowly ends their lives
The last soul sees his time
Prepaing the sacrifice soon to be done
Dawn has come for the invocation
Experincing the sacrificial rites
Pain has gone beyond laceration
The master of gods arise
Burning candles light the darkened realm
Final of the ritual visions never seen
Time drwas nearer the hour of dying
The last victim led to the altar of disease
