Sacrificial Rites

Necrophobic

Enforced by priests of lies The injure time of an evil seed The altar of damnation Surrounds the victim for the daemon feed Gathering for the ritual Awaiting for the holy blood to flow Spirits scorning the christian empire Infesting the victim while blood comes forth Dawn has come for the invocation Experincing the sacrificial rites Pain has gone beyond laceration The master of gods arise Another victim dies Diciples of God fear their destiny The damnation has come No escape from the flames of the deceased Chanting the hymn of death The wrath of Satan slowly ends their lives The last soul sees his time Prepaing the sacrifice soon to be done Dawn has come for the invocation Experincing the sacrificial rites Pain has gone beyond laceration The master of gods arise Burning candles light the darkened realm Final of the ritual visions never seen Time drwas nearer the hour of dying The last victim led to the altar of disease
