One And Only

Teitur

I've been wishing on a star but I could never have imagined
I would land just where you are after all this lonesome traveling
I took one look in your eye, reached out to hold your hand
This is when I realized but I could never understandDo you want to be my one and only love?
Do you want to be my one and only love?So you wanna be my friend, so you wanna be my lover
Oh, with you I do confess I can't be one without the other
That was hard for me to say, I hope I said it right
Which ever, come what may, you see I need to know tonightDo you want to be my one and only love?
Do you want to be my one and only love?Do you want to play these cards?
Do you want to lay 'em down?
Do you want to run away?
Or do you want to stick around?Do you want to be my one and only love?
Do you want to be my one and only love?
