

Watch Me Burn

Out With the Old

Watch Me Burn x3I hate the lies everyone says to me
I tear myself down enough, can't you see?
I'll lay in my bed
Tell myself it'll be alright
When I've never felt so alone
Say everything you wanted to meWatch me burn x3Why can't I move on from the little things?
I try to lie to myself that I'll be just fine
This depression eats at my heart
Drown myself in self doubt
And now I know
That I can't amount to what you need me to be
