Poison

Martina Topley-Bird

Just the memory of you
It feels like poison
Still the memory of you
It feels like poison
It kills like poisonWhy you do the things you do?
It feels like poison
I can only love you
It feels like poisonIf not for you
No love in front of me
Nobody told you
It's not how it's supposed to beMake a wish and blow it out
Love will begin again
I don't want to be a clown
The whole town is laughing
Behind my back, you're supposed to be a friendIf not for you
No love in front of me
Nobody told you
It's not how it's supposed to beNobody told you
Nobody told you
Nobody told you
