

Anthem

Bring Me the Horizon

This is an anthem, so fucking sing
A dedication to the end of everything
This is an anthem, so fucking sing
A dedication to the end of everything Someone call an ambulance
I got wounds to attend
Someone call a doctor
I fear this is the end This happens all the time
This happens every day
But I never seem to quit
The wolves never stay at bay I hate to say I told you so
But fuck it, I told you so
Don't say a word, I already know This is an anthem, so fucking sing
A dedication to the end of everything
This is an anthem, so fucking sing
A dedication to the end of everything Someone call an exorcist
And help me kill this curse
I can't stop the bleeding
And it's only getting worse This happens all the time
This happens every day
But I never seem to quit
The wolves never stay at bay
[Incomprehensible] I hate to say I told you so
But fuck it, I told you so
Don't say a word, I already know
I already know This is an anthem, so fucking sing
A dedication to the end of everything Get the fuck up
This is it, the sound of giving in
Yeah, get the fuck up
This is it, the end of everything Tastes so bitter, feels so sweet
Lost in a dream, never fell asleep
Tastes so bitter, feels so sweet
I've come back to old remedies This is an anthem, so fucking sing
This is an anthem, so fucking sing This is an anthem, so fucking sing
A dedication to the end of everything
This is an anthem, so fucking sing
A dedication to the end of everything
To the end of everything This is an anthem, so fucking sing
A dedication to the end of everything
