

Nostalgic (Mighty Mike & Teesa aka Kolaj Remix)

Kelly Clarkson

Don't be sad that it's over
Just be happy that it happened to us
Don't look back and remember
Drunken tears, oh remember the love
In my head, I see you laughing
From the words I said, felt like a new beginning
In my head, I see you standing there
The words you said felt like a story ending
We will never, ever be the same
Picture's changing, but not the frame
When I'm sleeping, I still kiss your face
I can't have it, when I'm awake
Even though we lost it, I still get nostalgic
Even if we wanted, we can't turn back the hands of time
Even though we lost it, I still get nostalgic
Nostalgic
I wonder if you're wearing
That gold chain with a promise from me
Honestly felt so real then
Even now it's not hard to believe
In my head, I see you laughing
From the words I said, felt like a new beginning
In my head, I see you standing there
The words you said felt like a story ending
We will never, ever be the same
Picture's changing, but not the frame
When I'm sleeping, I still kiss your face
I can't have it, when I'm awake
Even though we lost it, I still get nostalgic
Even if we wanted, we can't turn back the hands of time
Even though we lost it, I still get nostalgic
Nostalgic
We will never, ever be the same
We will never, ever be the same
Never be the same
Even though we lost it, I still get nostalgic
Even if we wanted, you can't turn back the hands of time
Even though we lost it, I still get nostalgic
Even if we wanted, you can't turn back the hands of time
Even though we lost it, I still get nostalgic
Nostalgic
