Half Crazy

Johnny Gill

(You) know I haven't slept a wink at all since you been gone,
An my eyes are kinda tired from crying all night long;
(You) know I've never been too good at cooking just for one;
It's so lonely here without you darling, come back home-

'Cause I'm half crazy
Feeling sorry for myself,
Half crazy
Where will you find someone else to love?

(You) know life hasn't been much fun at all since you been gone,
And my eyes begin to fill each time I hear our song;
I spent every minute asking myself what went wrong;
Can't we try to talk it over baby, come back home-

'Cause I'm half crazy
Feeling sorry for myself
Half crazy
Where will you find someone else?
But baby there is no one else;
Half crazy
For everything you say and do;
Half crazy
No one else could love you like I do.

(Instrumental)

'Cause I'm half crazy
Feeling sorry for myself
Half crazy
Where will you find someone else?
But baby there is no one else,
Half crazy
For everything you say and do;
Half crazy
No one else could ever love you
No one else could ever be
Half crazy
Feeling sorry for myself
(Half crazy)

And where will you find someone else
(Half crazy)
Feeling sorry for myself...
