Head On Home

Firefall

When you're tired of runnin' to nowhere
And you're weary of people who don't care
Head on homeHome awaits you
To return to, yeahWhen the tears keep coming too often
And there's no more smile to get off on
Head on homeHome awaits you
To return to, yeahTellin' your lies to young sisters and brothers
And you know there's no love that can match
Your own mother's at homeHome awaits you
To return to, yeah
