Soul To Feet

Kathryn Williams

You only stop talking
When you're sleeping
There's got to be something wrong
With your pastI can't talk if I'm thinking
I'm not gonna move so fastIs your life so exciting
You have to tell everyone you meet
Try to make it so enticing
You wear your soul out to your feetAlways leave before them
You want them to think
You've got so much to do
Maybe they're not thinking of youIf you would shut up
Someone could save you
Manipulate everything
And that's how I love youIs your life so exciting
You have to tell everyone you meet
Try to make it so enticing
You wear your soul out to your feetAlways leave before them
You want them to think
You've got so much to do
Maybe they're not thinking of youIs your life so exciting
You have to tell everyone you meet
Try to make it so enticing
You wear your soul out to your feetAlways leave before them
You want them to think
You've got so much to do
Maybe they're not thinking of youIf you would shut up
Someone could save you
Manipulate everything
And that's how I love you
