Rain Drops

Maysa

I feel alright
As long as the sun is bright
Soon as the clouds come rolling by
Big tears form in my eyesCan't explain
How I feel when the sky is grey
I sit alone and I just pray
For a sunny dayRain drops keep falling down
Your voice keeps calling me
Such a familiar sound
Those rainy nights keep haunting meYou're still on my mind
Even after all this time
I've tried to stay away
Move on to a brand new dayIt's such a shame
You really couldn't make up your mind
I couldn't wait another day
For your love
