

Slip Like Space (Demo Version)

Armor for Sleep

Watch me point to the sky
You laugh and say I'll never fly
I'll smile as you walk away
I always knew I couldn't stay Full throttle now
The milky way can't wait Diners turn into space ports
And I rocket past the moon
Say good-bye now
I'll be in the worm hole soon This planet wasn't made for me
All of you live so easy
I lay outside and up I stare
My home is in the void up there Full throttle now
The milky way can't wait Diners turn into space ports
And I rocket past the moon
Say your good-byes now
I'll be in the worm hole soon Approach light speed
And break apart
I don't care now
Nothing's real somehow
