

Desperate Dreams

Survivor

Two dreamers, what would it feel like to meet by light of day
So lonely, wouldn't it feel right to love this night away
Your name keeps echoing down this wishing well
Wild hearts on an endless flight, set free in our dreams tonight
Two souls drawn to the fire in desperate dreams
Two hearts lost to desire's desperate schemes
One girl lost in a reverie, lost love found in a memory
Those nights live on forever two fools lost in a desperate dream
Torn pages, more than a memory pieces of the past
One vision, your image keeps haunting me, a love too good to last
Your voice keeps echoing down this wishing well
Wild hearts on an endless flight, set free in our dreams tonight
Two souls drawn to the fire in desperate dreams
Two hearts lost to desire's desperate schemes
One girl lost in a reverie, lost love found in a memory
Those nights live on forever two fools lost in a desperate dream
One love divided burns brightly through the night
Two dreams united until the morning light
Two souls drawn to the fire in desperate dreams
Two hearts lost to desire's desperate schemes
One girl lost in a reverie, lost love found in a memory
Those nights live on forever two fools lost in a desperate dream
Lost in a desperate dream, in just a desperate dream
Only a desperate dream
