

I Should Have Known

The Ardels

I should have known that it would end this way
I should have known there was no other way
Didn't hear your warning
Damn my heart gone deaf I should have known
Look at the shape you're in
I should have known
But I don't write in
One thing is for certain
As I'm standing here
I should have known Lay your hands in mine
Heal me one last time
Though I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet
You leave my heart in debt I should have known
I was inside of you
I should have known
There was that side of you
Came without a warning
Caught me unaware
I should have known
I've been here before
I should have known
Don't want it anymore
One thing is for certain
I'm still standing here
I should have known Lay your hands in mine
Heal me one last time
Though I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet
You leave my heart in debt No I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet
You leave my heart in debt
I should have known Maybe you was right
Didn't want a fight
I should have known
Couldn't meet the signs
Couldn't see the lie
I should have known Though I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet

You leave my heart in debt
Though I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet
You leave my heart in debt
No I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet
You leave us all in debt
I should have known .
