Lately

Amber Garsia

Can we start again
No more games you win

Lately it hurts me to remember
It came so easy
When we were together

Wake me up please
Hearts wrapped up in sleep
Days turn into dreams
You're everywhere with me

Lately it hurts me to remember
It came so easy
When we were together
Lately like I'm going crazy
It's hard to see the point now
When my heart is breaking

Even though you're not around how could I forget you?
I loved you in a million ways
To many things I couldn't say now
After all the shit we been through how could I forget you?
how could I forget you?
You've always been the one to say loving me was worth the pain.

Lately it hurts me to remember
It came so easy
When we were together
Lately like I'm going crazy
It's hard to see the point now
When my heart is breaking
