Bill Watterson

Lemon Demon

where'd you go
when you were done?
I'd like to know
what you've becomeyour biggest fan, awake at dawn,
I cry, I stand
on your front lawnit's plain to see you're scared of me but that's not how it's supposed to bewhen you're the reason I'm in town
and every piece of mind you put downdon't you know I think that you're the cat's meow?
where's the tiger now? where's the tiger now?Bill Watterson, can't you hear me?
Bill Watterson, please don't fear me Don't treat me like I have rabies I only wanna have your babies
