

Lie Detector

David Devant & His Spirit Wife

I had a little girl
But I didn't suspect her Her mamma never told me
she's a lie detector
I was used to playing games with the other boys
But now I can't do nothing but tell the truth
'cause she knows what I've done
And she's got no proof

She's a lie lie lie detector
You better say what you mean
It you don't she'll be coming to get you

They told me that love comes in many guises
She can see through walls and see through disguises
So it's no good praying
or crossing your fingers
'cause the smell of a lie it always lingers
Even on the breath of rock 'n' roll singers

Chorus

Look into her eyes
She can see through your lies
Why don't you
Look into her eyes?
She can see through your lies
Your mouth goes dry...
Your palms start to sweat...
She looks in your eye and she sees regret

So it's no good praying
or crossing your fingers
The smell of a lie (sniff) always lingers
So you can't do nothing but tell the truth
She knows what you've done

And she's got no proof

Chorus

Lie detector
Truth inspector
So tell the truth
Or she'll forget yer
