

Good-Bye July

Margo Guryan

Good-bye, July Words and Music by Margo Guryan Good-bye, July
I had a good time while you were here
Good-bye, July
I guess I'll see you again next year And yet I can't imagine having Much more fun
Than we had
We three Sitting on the beaches
Soaking sun
July, my love
And me Good-bye, my love
July has stolen your heart away
Next time I love
I'll love in April or March or maybe Winter is the best time, after all
Away from summer's golden sun
Away from girls (those) who kiss and run
And take your true love just for fun Oh well
Farewell love and
