

Song for the Hopeful (feat. Kim Burrell)

Harry Connick, Jr.

People with hope have a special prayer,
a louder drum, a brighter flare,
This is a song for the hopeful,
May God hear it sung. People with faith are the lucky kind,
They'll be the ones with peace of mind,
This is a song for the faithful,
May God hear it sung. There's a song for the doubtful,
There's a song for the lost,
There's a song for the desert, barren, but crossed. But for those who are strong of spirit,
Maybe they don't need to hear it,
But still, a song for them,
A simple song for them. Nothing can shake a seasoned soul,
It's all the loss that makes it whole,
This is a song for the hopeful,
May God hear it sung. There's a song for the doubtful,
There's a song for the lost,
There's a song for the desert, barren, but crossed. But for those who are strong of spirit,
Maybe they don't need to hear it,
But still, a song for them,
A simple song for them. Well nothing can shake a seasoned soul,
It's all the loss that makes it whole,
This is a song for the hopeful. This is a song for the faithful,
This is a song for the hopeful,
May God hear it sung,
May God hear it sung,
May God hear it sung.
