Fight To Forget

Red

You're a monster in my mind
You're the one I can't leave behind
You crawl inside
I watched you die
Did you think you could bury me.[Instramental]Your love is a lie
I will fight to forget
Your love is a lie
I will die to forgetDid you get what you want from me?
You weren't the one that I thought you'd be.
Everything is lost
Everything I lost
Did you think you that could erase me?Your love is a lie
I will fight to forget
Your love is a lie
I will die to forgetI will fight to forget you
I will die to forget youLet me go
Let me go
Let me go
Let me goLet you go
Let you go
You're abandoned
You're broken down
You're sin is burning on me
Your hopelesness
You're a sinner
Your scream is burning on meYour love is a lie
I will fight to forget
Your love is a lie
I will die to forgetI will fight to forget you
I will die to forget you
