Awesome Wonder

Kurt Carr

When I consider the vastness of God
And all of the marvelous attractions that His hands have made
Flowers and birds and oceans and mountains
Truly God is an awesome wonder
You are an awesome wonder
No other power compares to You
Perfect in all your ways
Everyday faithful ever true
Oceans applaud You
Creation declares your grandeur
Here in Your splendor
We surrender to the wonder of Your power
With just one thought
You made heaven and earth
Knew my name before my birth
You know what lies in store for me
You designed my destiny and
As we come before You now
In Your presence we will bow
We submit ourselves to thee
And to your awesome deity
You said let there be and darkness turned to light
Even death bows in Your might
Kings and queens submit to thee
And proclaim Your majesty
You reached down and took clay in Your hands
Then You fashioned it to man
We stand in awe of what You've done
Oh God of awesome wonder
How when I consider all the works great
Thy hands, thou art have made
My soul cries out, "How great Thou art, how great Thou art"
The heavens and the firmaments
Declare the greatness of thy power
