Under Control

Chart Stormers

I turn my head,
I can't shake the look you gave me
I'm as good as dead,
Cause all those eyes are all it takes
And all, I want, is you
So I pulled away
All I do is sit and wait
And I might as well
Write the words right on my face
That all, I want, is you
Always you

Because I've kept my heart under control
But lately, all this time has taken its toll
Said I tried to but I can't hold back what's deep in my soul
So darling please believe me
I want you and you just have to know

And all my fears,
Creep and crawl across my skin
These four walls,
Are after me and moving in
And all, all that I want to do, oh
Is give up, give in,
And let this one see where it ends
But I don't suppose I will

Because I've kept my heart under control
But lately, all this time has taken its toll
Said I tried to but I can not back what's deep in my soul
So darling please believe me
I want you and you just have to know

That one of these days
I'm gonna find myself away
I'm bout to carnage
Oh I'm bout rage
Oh and I'm going to know, just what to say
Oh and walk on up
When you want this love

And you've had enough
And yo keep giving up

Because I've kept my heart under control
But lately, all this time has taken its toll
Said I tried to but I can not back what's deep in my soul
So darling please believe me
I want you and you just have to know

I've kept my heart, under control
It's under control baby
Deep down in my soul
It's under control baby
Darling don't let this go
Baby girl oh oh
Its under control
