

She Paints Houses

Eugene McGuinness

And I've been putting it about
Step right up, step right up
I'm giving it away
My body was a temple, now
It's lying in ruins and-I crave your saviour
So update your profile
If it's over, over
If it's over, over
If it's over, over then drive I wear my heart behind my trousers
I'm only a Eurostar away
And all the hoods say she paints houses
Don't care what the gangsters say-I crave her
I was made for her
If I stray then I equalize
If it's over, over
If it's over, over
If it's over, over then drive Yeah it beats
But it don't mean it ain't broken
I'm busting fleets
To split the ocean but who cares I crave you saviour
So update your profile
If it's over, over
If it's over, over
If it's over, over then drive Yeah it beats
But it don't mean it ain't broken
I'm busting fleets
To split the ocean but who cares
And now it's on my sleeve
Does that mean you'll tear it open?
All for some lipstick on the collar
And a stray blonde hair
