

Doombringer

Azarath

No need for apologies, we all played fair

 No reason to forgive nor to forget

 Four years of high life and then you die

Beaten by the clock yet you try to stay aliveDoom, the end is closing in

 Just before it all begins

 The end is closing inDestined to lead yet you're always last

 Strictly narrow minded, don't give a shit about the past

 Yet the future is dimmed in a cloud of gasoline

In blood red darkening, you try to float upstreamDoom, the end is closing in

 Just before it all begins

 The end is closing inDoombringer

 DoombringerDisappointed by the truth

 Misery shines through you

 Endless pain is all you give

 Wade through emptiness for eternity
