White Lies

Swing

I wake up lonely without love at my side

I wake up lonely and I don't know why

(?)It seems it never really works for longBut here

In my heart

An endless hole

No words to denyYou ring I'm running

All this love

Nowhere to go

The dark (?) liesYou ring I'm running home

You ring I'm running

You ring I'm running home

You ring I'm runningAnd I'm the one

The only one

Or someoneI took the life and soul from every dream

Until it sucked the life and soul from meBut here

Where I go

Sometimes so lowWhen night whips the tide

You ring I'm running home

All this time

It moves so slow

Your kiss never diesYou ring I'm running home

You ring I'm running

You ring I'm running home

You ring I'm runningAnd I'm the one

The only one

Or someoneAnd I'm not trying to hide but

The skies all deny it

Raise a hand and?? but

It's part of meA hammer beside it puncturing the quiet

Love unwind

This is all I need
