You

Wes Carr

Could have Guitars that I have never played,
Every Elvis album ever made.
I got the cars, I should learn to drive
could have a house that would blow your mind!You can have what I got cause I don't got nothing worth having if I aint got you,
You can take what u want cause I dont want nothing, i've nothing if I dont have you.I've been to places all around the world,
seen the faces of so many girls.
Never thought I would fall in love,
I guess the songs I write are not enoughYou can have what I got cause I don't got nothing worth having if I aint got you,
You can take what u want cause I dont want nothing, i've nothing if I dont have you.I can say what I need but I'll never need anything more, if I didn't have you.You can have what I got cause I don't got nothing worth having if I aint got you.So take it away, you know I dont need that sorrow if I'm broke I'll borrow.
Just lend me a smile, as long as your here by my side!Take what you want, aint got nothin', aint got nothin but you babe.
Take what you want babe, aint got nothin' oh I aint got nothin'You can have what I got cause I don't got nothing worth having if I aint got you (Aint got you)
You can take what u want cause I dont want nothing, i've nothing if I dont have you.You can have what I got cause I don't got nothing worth having if I aint got you (Aint got you)
You can take what u want cause I dont want nothing, i've nothing if I dont have you.You can have what I got cause I don't got nothing worth having if I aint got you
You can take what u want cause I dont want nothing, i've nothing if I dont have you.
