Don't Breathe

Legacy (New Boyz)

(And the situation I'm i right now really can't help) (I had to let her go..)
(Rebeezza!)
Changed man to say the least I use to break fast til it turn to beef it use to be only yes to know his cheating now I don't go to far like I'm on a leash you just a loop to my reset button and I memorized it all so I regret nothing yea I fell for you but I damn sure won't stay down you had me boxed in too long it's time to break out see it does feel great but I just can't break cause I know Part of what you want is for me to take risks but I won't my conscience keep telling me don't breathe don't breathe no cause your just to deep in love don't breathe don't breathe and you want me to drown but i aint gon let you pull me down said I ain't gon let you pull me down no I ain't gon let you pull me down she said she love me but I ain't say it back cause if I stated that then I may stay attached and that's the last thing that a nigga needed I kill that effing loop before I let the shit repeat itself over again (se se self over again) a snail losing a shell could reveal how they pretend to not care and pose as unsure that's why I rock a shell cause if I lose it I'm yours

See it does feel great but I just can't break cause I know Part of what you want is for me to take risks but I won't
my conscience keep telling me don't breathe don't breathe no cause your just to deep in love don't breathe don't breathe and u want me to drown but i aint gon let pull me down
no i aint gon let you pull me down (I mean...I know it wasn't fair to her..) (I felt like I was going to lose myself trying to find her) the other day I sent her flowers with a note attached it read I really miss home so I'm going back I know it's short notice so I'm really hoping that you not too mad and you could still pick up the phone in chat it's ironic when I think about this shit I mean not tryna lose you is the reason that I left my conscience said to hold my breath in I'm flying but I couldn't stand to see you live with a lie so I'm kissing you bye
See it does feel great but I just can't break cause I know
Part of what you want is for me to take risks but I won't my conscience keep telling me don't breathe don't breathe no cause your just to deep in love don't breathe don't breathe and u want me to drown but i aint gon let pull me down
