

You're Not in the Wind

Kalee Hric

I stood on the mountain
And heard a mighty wind
The mountain broke to pieces
But You were not in
The wind Then things began shaking
And falling all around
I knew the earth was breaking
But You could not be found in
The shaking You're not in the shaking
The quaking
The fire
The wind Now everything's on fire
Just burning to the ground
It gets hotter and hotter
But where are You if You're not in
The fire You're not in the shaking
The quaking
The fire
The wind And softly You whisper
And I know why
(Cause) You're passing by
You're passing by mmm mmm You're not in the shaking
The quaking
The fire
The wind mmm mmm
