

Red Handed

Venture

I wonder whatâ€™s inside of you thatâ€™s twisted you this way
A plot that reads like blackmail is forcing me to stay
Why should I waste my time caring for you?
Why would I waste my time listening to you?
She waits
Delicate hand upon the trigger
She waits
Your lies have given you away

I caught you red handed
Thereâ€™s no where to hide
The storyâ€™s unfolded
The mask is untied
I caught you red handed
The time has arrived
Iâ€™m taking control of my life

Itâ€™s a miracle I got away
I never thought I would
You changed your town, you changed your name
Your half of twice as good

Why should I waste my life caring for you?
Why would I waste my time listening to you?

She waits
Delicate hand upon the trigger
She waits
Your lies have given you away

I caught you red handed
Thereâ€™s no where to hide
Your storyâ€™s unfolded
The mask is untied
I caught you red handed
The time has arrived
Iâ€™m taking control of my life

I donâ€™t want to be any part of Your life is all for show
I donâ€™t want to be trapped inside this story that youâ€™ve written
So I go. So I go

I caught you red handed
Thereâ€™s no where to hide
The storyâ€™s unfolded
Your mask is untied
I caught you red handed
The time has arrived
Iâ€™m taking control of my life
