

This Heart

Bethany and the Guitar

Finally I made my mind up
I know now that I just cannot stay
But im still having visions
Your tshirt en...(?) by the rain
I wish I could make us be ok

It would be so easy
To tell you i made a big mistake
Crawl back into your heart
Forget all the hurt that took your place
I'm afraid I'll love you allways

Please somebody take this heart, heart from me
This pain just wont go, just won't go, no it wont
I've had enough, I am not, not this tough
so please somebody, take this heart, heart from me, ayay

It would be so lovely
If i would just forget your face
Only for a moment
To set my poor heart back in its place
I pray my memories to go away

Please somebody take this heart, heart from me
This pain just wont go, just won't go, no it wont
I've had enough, I am not, not this tough
so please somebody, take this heart, heart from me, ayay

Ohoho

Please somebody take this heart, heart from me
This pain just wont go, just won't go, no it wont
I've had enough, I am not, not this tough
