

You Burn First

Alexisonfire

I said, "Cover me if there is a fire
'Cause I want you to burn first"
She screamed at me, "I want to be desired"
I said, "Easy girl, I know it hurts" Let's all give thanks that I am a liar
'Cause I've got a feeling, I just might get worse
Now there's nothing wrong with you, I'm just tired
And I'm in a mood for a brand new curse You burn first
You burn first
You burn first
You burn first "Cover me if there is a fire
'Cause I want you to burn first"
She screamed at me, "I want to be desired"
I said, "Girl, I know it hurts"
