Someone To Blame

Jesus Jones

Understand that we don't dislike you
Nothing ever goes quite as planned
Well, you know that these things happen
So we just know you'll understandBut it's not you fault
No, it's not you fault
No, it's not you fault
We just need someone to blameYou really needn't take it so hard
You know how quickly people forget
We've heard it said that you're no bad loser
So we'll just know you'll have no regretsBut it's not your fault
No, it's not you fault
No, it's not you fault
We just need someone to blameBut it's not your fault
No, it's not you fault
No, it's not you fault
We just need someone to blameNo, it's not you fault
No, it's not you fault
No, it's not you fault
We just need someone to blameBut it's not your fault
No, it's not you fault
No, it's not you fault
We just need someone to blameBut it's not your fault
No, it's not you fault
No, it's not you fault
We just need someone to blame
