staring at the window panes russian roulette with the names on the phonewhen i stare at your face are you even alive?oh my god you're so fucking intelligent don't you just love the use of Andy Warhol?we always knew that we were never the best advocates and it's ok if i'm grey todayholy fuck i'm impressed too bad i don't have a pussy to plunge in as i sit here and stomach this here's a nobel prize let's gamble our demisestaring at the window panes russian roulette with the names on the phone hey you, where you from? never mind just leave me alonei drained the wells so the town has no water i cut the phone lines and buried the grain i drained the blood of the fortunate ones it's self destruction cause we're all the samehurry i'm trading the gold for cash and that's what everyone is saying don't blame me for post economical backlash that's what everyone is doing sometimes i can't believe myself consequence in the purest form i see them coming from miles awayi'm down with brown town i'm down with brown town
i'm down with brown town (it's only seconds away)
i'm down with brown town
(it's only seconds away)
(it's only seconds away)
(only seconds away)
