Your Life as a Sequel

Lambchop

Should I know your place
And my place or undiscovered
Through a curtain or refinery
Not certain or temporaryI should be more considerate
Of the others on call
Is the day to day opportunity
That is my lifeA beautiful case of the unspoiled race
Which can enter your race
Quite unknowing for certain
There are no real changes
In the original outtakes of your life
As a sequelUnsuccessful too dumb again
Walleyed and wounded in the capital city
Under tense evaluation
Does that have anything to do with dissolving?My star has put my life
Under the greatest of scrutiny
A balancing place
Between your nose and your faceA consolidated center of learning
Making up offers of considerable cost
Which can enter your life
As a sequel
