

My House (Derrick Carter's BHQ Voodoo Remix)

Hercules and Love Affair

My heart is now in a higher place
Free from your hands, I have my own space
Many times I held your hand
Guide through things I didn't understand But my house is in order
But my house is in order
But my house is in order
My house, my house As I walked through the sense of dark
The touch of your hands was the spark, oh, the spark
The spark made me need more, your touch helped me know
The spark made me need more, your touch helped me know But my house is in order
But my house is in order
But my house is in order
My house, my house
But my house is in order
But my house is in order
But my house is in order
My house, my house I can sleep at night
I can dream in peace
Knowing, knowing that you are there
Knowing that, knowing that I can sleep at night
I can dream in peace
Knowing, knowing that you are there
Knowing, knowing that I can sleep at night
I can dream in peace
Knowing, knowing that
Knowing, knowing that
That my house is in order
But my house is in order
But my house is in order
My house, my house But my house is in order
But my house is in order
But my house is in order
My house, my house
