

Amanda (live)

Green Day

Amanda don't you know
That I still walk around
This foggy round about
When I get back in town.
I was a different man
From five seconds ago
And you're a different woman,
That's for certain,
I don't know a thing about. Is this some kind of love
That only hate would understand?
Amanda, I couldn't be your man. Amanda don't you know
I wasn't strong enough
And in your wild mind
I wasn't smart enough.
I was a different kid
From fifteen years ago
And you're a different woman,
That's for certain,
I wanna know about. Is this some kind of love
That only hate would understand?
Amanda, I couldn't be your man. I'm not playin' with your mind
Unless you think I am.
'Cause you're crushing my heart
Like a battering ram. Is this some kind of love
That only hate would understand?
Amanda, I couldn't be your man.

Songwriters

TRE COOL, BILLIE JOE ARMSTRONG, MIKE DIRNT Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>