Shadowman

Teen Idols

Everyday I sit and stare and guess the color of your underwear but you don't even notice me I think I need you hopelesslySometimes when you're lost in thought I dream you think it's me you want but then I know I'm just a fool 'cause you're the hottest girl in schoolSomeday soon I'll say hello and you will smile then you'll know me for who I am we'll talk awhile, we'll talk awhileI am just your shadowman but I'm doing the best I can seems you don't just give a damn about this lonely shadowman please look back and know we can kiss and hold each other's hand why can't you just understand I'm better than a shadowmanTouched you once as you passed by thinking of your other guy I raised my hand to touch your hair but you didn't even notice that I was standing thereWhen I lie in bed at night after turning out the light I wonder what you're doing now and if you're keeping up your vows
