

Letter to McKay (God's Way)

Wes Cunningham

I hope this letter finds you in good spirits, and you're feeling alive.
Me, I've had some better days, but I'm still trying to get by,
and I would like to join the club
and lose myself in love, but just now
I'm not doing so well.

I can't tell you if I'm seeing clearly,
when I'm in this state,
or if my perspective filter is too muddy to relate.
And I'm embarrassed to say that my love has gone away,
and just now
I'm not doing so well.
I'm not doing "

but it's just God's way, God's way
of breaking me down
and tearing me out,
out of the world.
It's just God's way,
God's way
of breaking me down,
of tearing me out,
out of the world.

Like watching television
on a sunny afternoon, I am restless and I'm bored, and all my thoughts are out of tune.
And the passions of youth fight the flashes of truth,
and just now
I'm not doing so well.

Iâ€™m not doing â€“

but itâ€™s just Godâ€™s way,

Godâ€™s way

of breaking me down

and tearing me out,

out of the world.

Itâ€™s just Godâ€™s way,

Godâ€™s way

of breaking me down,

of tearing me out,

out of the world.

Lyrics submitted by Bert Williams.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>