

All Time Low

Nine Inch Nails

Go, I've heard all I need to know
Your voice in fucking echo stereo
Well this particular scenario
Looks like another all time low Why did you go and let them in?
See, this is where the fun begins
You barely even pierced the skin
Just wait till you see what is coming Get down on the floor
Shut the goddamn door
We've done this all before
We're coming back for more So give me just a little, baby
Just something to get by
It's gonna last forever, baby
Forget the other side Then we will live forever, baby
And stretch across the sky
I'll follow right behind you, baby
We're never gonna die Hey!
Everything is not okay
We lost too much along the way
The passengers are out today
It looks as though they're here to stay This paranoia turns to fear
There's two of us whispering in your ear
Pretending but I know you hear
Just how we fucking end up here So give me just a little, baby
Just something to get by
It's gonna last forever, baby
Forget the other side Then we will live forever, baby
And stretch across the sky
I'll follow right behind you, baby
We're never gonna die We're never gonna die
How did we get so high? Stretch across the sky
