

We'll Burn The Sky

Scorpions

I'm in love with the sunshine
I'm in love with the fallin' rain
Everything seems to call your name
Yesterday you were leavin'
Leavin' life and all your pain
Everything wants you back again
Wants you back again, wants you back again
I found myself through you
And there was love in my life
I felt always naturally high
And my love had a home
But now my mind has started to roam
You're my life-giving fire
How do you carry all my love?
Through you I was so inspired
You're engraved deep in my heart
My dreams recall us being one
I've searched for you to be free
The force of life you have always been
I feel blue since you've gone

You're breath of love surrounded me
When can I rejoin you to be free?
Rejoin you to be free, rejoin you to be free
Oh, wait, can this be a dream?
There is a voice in my head
It belongs to you, it says
Don't cry, no need to be sad
There's a way to stay with you again
It's more than you ever had
And no death brings us apart
Our timeless love always grows
Because you are my other part
I know we've never been apart
Your love sets fire to my heart
We'll burn the sky
When its time for me to die
We'll burn the sky, oh, yeah
We'll burn the sky, oh, yeah

When it's time, time, time
We'll burn the sky, we'll burn the sky, oh, yeah
