

Paranoid

DiAmond Miller

I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid (cuz I get paranoid)
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid (cuz I get paranoid)
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid (cuz I get paranoid)
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid, paranoid

I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid,
But I'm still drinking, swear that I been sipping heavy boy,
I knew some people that got sent up into heaven's gates,
Dunno if they had let them in cuz I know they fake.

Look into my eyes and say that you're real,
That's how I know you fake,
We just had sex the other day,
Girl how you know you're late.

I've never been a lover boy,
My feelings not involved,
Girl, I'm a loner,
Can you please not come around and call.

I've never been a people person,
Think I'm best alone,
And if I smoke,
I rather do that shit within my home.

I think them eyes is looking at me,
What is on your mind?
No, I'm not tripping,
Evil lurk, I think that's just a sign.

And my anxiety has lately got the best of me,
This mental illness is out here fucking with my destiny,
I'm truly confident when I snort up that Stephanie,
But after that I'm just a pressure be the death of me (death of me)

I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid (cuz I get paranoid)
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid (cuz I get paranoid)
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid (cuz I get paranoid)
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid, paranoid

I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid
I don't smoke that much cuz I get paranoid, paranoid
