

Arienne

Tasmin Archer

Arienne, I realize something's not in your favour Arienne, I'll catch you when you fall You turn in the world, the world turns grey
All alone on your own, you're set in your ways
You breathe in a smile then wipe it away
Broken heart, torn apart and let down again Arienne, I realize something's not in your favour Arienne, I'll catch you when you fall, Arienne The view from the hill is not what it seems From below, don't you know it's all in your dreams? Arienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fall Arienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fall, Arienne Oh, it's true, oh, it's true
I'll catch you when you fall Arienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fall Arienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fall You fall, you fall, you fall, you fall
You fall, you fall, you fall, you fall, you fall
