Arienne

Tasmin Archer

Arienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fallYou turn in the world, the world turns grey
All alone on your own, you're set in your ways
You breathe in a smile then wipe it away
Broken heart, torn apart and let down againArienne, I realize something's not in your favour Arienne, I'll catch you when you fall, ArienneThe view from the hill is not what it seems
From below, don't you know it's all in your dreams?Arienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fallArienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fall, ArienneOh, it's true, oh, it's true
I'll catch you when you fallArienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fallArienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fallArienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fallArienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fallArienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fallArienne, I realize something's not in your favour
Arienne, I'll catch you when you fallArienne, I realize something's not in your favour
