

Raindrops (feat. Kay L & Voyce)

DJ Kav

(Chorus)

Rain, rain, I still feel so cold (yeah)
Surrounded by your pain, pain, there's no where left to go (go)
So we'll just fall like rain, rain, raindrops.
So we'll just cry like rain, rain, raindrops.
Rain, rain-drops

(Yeah) Yeah,

I think as rise has been spotted,
My 't's has been crossed and my 'i's has been dotted
The mother of the mind, the brother to the rhyme.
I am sound to the deaf, the color to the blind.
With all this I still can't bring my people back
'Cuz once you're gone, you're gone and that is the deepest fact
It's a movement, start the migration
An organization, for all of my nations
It's building up from years of triturations(not sure about this word)
And one to many pull-overs and citations
And I'll forever let my brother write
'Cuz in the end we'll together on the other side
And it's better there, and we stayin' with you
We still miss you right here and that's the main issue
And we have plans for the fame
When I see you once again,
I'll have the chance to explain
Oh---
Just let it rain

(Chorus)

(Yeah) To Martin Luther King
Even though we've seen scrapping
We go be the ones to ensure your dreams happen
To all those who fell, who call freedom volunteers
The angels call for you, you can see them fall tears
Every times it's raining, they weeper from the sky
Laid my life on a line, just to keep us from a lie
And when we gained power they needed to kill
So I hit the crime choppered my leadership skills

And dudes talking and they feel we are one a equal mission
The difference is that when I talk people listen
And they don't ask no questions
And they don't need permission
My music is filling in the void my people missing
And if you say you never cry, I'ma call it bluffing
Wish I could bring your back
But it is all of nothing
And you'll be forever reflected in our lyrics
'Cuz that's the only way we stay connected with your spirits
Oh---
Just let it rain

(Chorus)

(Yeah)

You know I really don't like feeling like this but Looks like somebody gotta do it
Lets make a change

'Cuz everyone else in the house tonight
Just want to say, ah-yeah, ah-yeah
You want to say ah-yeah, ah-yeah
I want to cry so go ahead and
There is obviously pain
To let it out, to let it out now
Yeah, let it out, let it out now
Ah-yeah
