Secret Lies

Chilly

Yesterday, I realize
You've got a strange look
In your eyes
And you are not the same
The reasons plane
You can't hide
I can clearly see
You are know but suddenly
Your face becomes unknown to me
And I wonder why You sit in lies

Secret lies return all over your face
I see a mask in a mask
I see a heart that is cold
Secret lies return all over your face
I see a smile without soul
You play a game and pretend...
