Seventh Star

Seventh Star

There's a vision in the sands
Rising from the ancient past
Crying let my spirit go
Lead my burning soul to restHear the sound of distant ages
The call of the seventh star
The call of the seventh starThere's no shelter from the heat
There's no mercy from this land
Hear a thousand chanting souls
Waiting judgment from God's handHear the sound of distant ages
The call of the seventh star
The call of the seventh starHear the sound of fallen angels
The call of the seventh star
The call of the seventh starThe pyramids will fall
Turn to dust before the sun
And the star will rise again
Until destiny is doneHear the sound of distant ages
The call of the seventh star
The call of the seventh starHear the sound of fallen angels
The call of the seventh star
The call of the seventh starThe call of the seventh star
The call of the seventh star
