

Turn Around

Enigma

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Turn around and I will show you something
Turn around and you will see
Life is like a roundabout
A kind of I S D Turn around and have faith in all the changes
Turn around and you will feel
No more age of loneliness
You are a part of me Turn around and I will show you something
Turn around and I will show you something Turn around and I will show you something
Turn around and you will see
Life is just a roundabout
A kind of I S D Turn around have faith in all the changes
Turn around and you will feel
No more age of loneliness
You are a part of me Beyond the invisible, the prism of life
The child in us, gravity of love
Morphing through time Turn around and I will show you something
Turn around and you will see
Life is just a roundabout
A kind of I S D Turn around have faith in all the changes
Turn around and you will feel
No more age of loneliness
You are a part of me The screen behind the mirror, the voice and the snake
Principles of lust, the eyes of truth
T N T for the brain Turn around and I will show you something
Turn around and you will see
Life is just a roundabout
A kind of I S D Turn around and I will show you something
Turn around and you will see
Life is like a roundabout
A kind of I S D T-t-turn around and I will show you something
