Sure Shot

Polvo

And for every cross you make
One is taken in
And everything you shake
To await the end

And everything is prime
And nothing's clever
But longing when you die
As I got myself together
And for every cross you make
One gets taken in
And everything you shake
To await the end

And everything in code try to decipher
If I'm living where I'm mode ?
I'm no longer the outsider
