

Change of Heart

El Perro del Mar

Her hand in the darkness
I follow for so long
your voice in my ear
carry me back home
wishing you'd consider
    a change of heart
    but all are so bitter
    and we will never stop we will never stop (x4)A light in the darkness been dreaming for so long searching for a witness or means to carry on sweet talk for hours
    'bout things we're gonna' do and sometimes I lose track of my heart but this could never work out oh ohhNever stop we will never stop (x3)We will never stop (x4)Her hand in the darkness follow for so long
    help me back home
    why won't you consider?
    a change of heart (x11)
