Should Have Known

Chatham County Line

No I would not be here without your love
It binds us and ties us and speaks like a drug
No I would not be here without...
Shoud've known better than to fall in love
She hit me just like a drug
And in the eye of the hurricane
There was no relief from the pain
So tonight before you leave
Let me feel the love I need
Shoud've known better than to fall in love
Should've known, should've known better
So tonight I'll hold you
To keep from falling
In love together
Should've known better than to fall in love
Man, it's hard with this drug
Should've known better than to fall in love
Should've known, should've known better
So tonight I'll hold you
To keep from falling
In love together
Should've known, I should've known better
Should've known, I should've known better
